Entering your cat in a show is similar to participating in a beauty contest, where presentation is important. Ensure your cat is well-groomed, healthy, and exhibits good weight and muscle tone. Their eyes and ears should be clean, and claws neatly trimmed. Avoid showing cats that are not in peak condition, such as those with missing fur or being underweight, to maintain the standards of the competition.

Bring a clean mat to use on the judging table and a teaser if your cat enjoys playing with it. Both items should be placed on top of your cat's cage before the start of judging. If any of your cats show signs of illness or are unwell, do not enter or attend shows. It is recommended that cats being shown regularly receive annual vaccinations. VACCINATION CARDS MUST BE SHOWN FOR ALL KITTENS/CATS AT VETTING

Direct Deposits Only Please
